Membership fees are charged in two ways:

- A subscription of £15 per year (September 1st – August 31st): This covers insurance, the opportunity to audition for or be involved in some way in any of the theatre's productions, play readings and social activities. The subscription is not required for three weeks after the first date of attendance, which gives you time to decide if you want to become a full member of the Youth Theatre.
- A payment of £3 per week for workshops: Workshops are led by visiting who receive payment for their work. The £3 payment is a contribution to help offset the cost of the workshops. If a Director is hired for the annual Youth Theatre production, the £3 payment also applies. Payment for workshops is applicable from the first week that you attend.
